Weekly Reflection ~September 16 24th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Every Sunday we pray for the poor, the needy, and those in trouble. Many also contribute to the poor box. We are moved by the plight of those who have lost homes and loved ones when their stories appear on the news. Prayer and empathy are important but they are not enough. God likes to answer our prayers through others—us. How are you helping God to answer someone's prayer? You can't do everything but you could mow your elderly neighbor's lawn, visit someone who is ill, take a moment to talk to a stranger, or tell someone they have done a good job. Consider how you could become a participant in God's answers to our prayers.
