Dear Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
Hear the prayers we offer for our priests.
Let them know clearly the work that You are calling them to do. Grant them every grace to answer Your call with courage, love, and lasting dedication to Your will.
We ask Mary's intercession as their loving mother. Amen

Weekly Reflection ~September 23 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time

What do we pray for? There is a joke about a man who kept praying to win the lottery. Finally the Lord said, "At least buy a ticket!" It is good to pray about our needs and concerns; but we also need to do our part. Praying that God will change the person who is annoying us is to miss the point. Our prayer should be for understanding, patience, and the wisdom to see what we need to change within ourselves. Instead of praying for that salary increase, perhaps we should be praying to do our job well, to become a better steward of our resources, and grow in appreciation of what we do have. Consider our prayers and what you do to help those prayers get answered.

"Behold God is my helper; the Lord sustains my life."
